Gonzalez Family
Missionaries to Romania

Debby's vacation: she really enjoyed her break in El Salvador and spending time with family. She also enjoyed her visits to different churches and other Christian Institutions where she shared impressions about her studies and her experience as a "third culture kid".

The Pacific coast, El Salvador

Reencountering her origins: it was helpful for her culturally speaking. It is not easy for any missionary kid who grew up in foreign lands to identify with their home country. Anyone who has raised kids on the mission field knows this very well.

The affective care of the local church was very important: the time dedicated to meet with her, the disposition to listen to her, the care and appreciation; all this showed her the value that we have as a missionary family.

Thanks to all of you in El Salvador: We thank the mission's ministry of Miramonte Baptist Church for keeping the agenda; "MIES" Agency, COMISAL and DEMCA, for their precious attention and invitations to teach and share in their mission courses. Our thanks go also to all the churches involved and to all the pastors, friends and brothers who showed her lots of care through their special attentions and receptions. We also thank the Doctors who offered their medical services.

← Debby is back at Liberty University and staying busy: currently she has been chosen as an RA (Resident Assistant), which has been added as a scholarship along with her salary from working as a Student Worker at the School of Education as well as to her other scholarships. All these have helped covered the cost of tuition and room and board.

The Seminaries "Enjoy the Family".

We give thanks to God for having helped us organize and finish these family and marriage related seminaries.

← Lilian Elisa has begun her studies at Liberty University:

She left Romania Thursday the 13th in the morning and arrived in Washington D.C. the noon of that same day. She was picked up by a group of brothers from the Romanian Prayer Group of the Hispanic Church of "Capital Baptist Church". That same evening the group gathered in order to share with her and welcome her. The next day the brothers took her up to Liberty University. The same group had received Debby a week earlier and had given her an offering for their studies. Another brother donated a mini-fridge that Elisa needed for her room. We give thanks to Pastor Luis and to each of the brothers for their lovely attention.

We also thank Dr. Mario Fuentes and his beloved family from Hamilton, Canada, for their support to our daughters' education and for their offering for Elisa's plane ticket.

We also thank Pastor Hector Arevalo and his beloved family and Sister Sara from Los Angeles, for their faithful support to Debby's education.

Elisa was chosen as a Prayer Leader at the University and has also received a work offer at the Education Department. We trust that God will provide through donations the total amount needed in order for her to cover the costs of room and board, health insurance and textbooks.

Thanks to all of you who are praying and giving sacrificially for our ministry and family.

Thank you and God Bless You!
